

Brandon Jackson

Elder Fraud Prosecutor

Assistant Criminal District Attorney for Bexar County, Texas

Bexar County Assistant District Attorney Brandon Jackson was assigned to one of two Elder Fraud Prosecutor positions in March, 2015. Mr. Jackson's duties are two-fold: 1) prosecute those accused of financial fraud against the elderly, and 2) make awareness presentations to the community and to law enforcement agencies regarding elder fraud.

Mr. Jackson graduated from Saint Mary's University School of Law in May of 2009, and has been a prosecutor in the Bexar County District Attorney's office ever since. He has prosecuted cases in the juvenile, misdemeanor, magistrate, general felony, and elder fraud sections of the District Attorney's office, and has tried well over 50 jury trials as a first chair prosecutor.
