

KEVIN ZAVIAN

Consultant Appraiser

Jewelry and Watches

Kevin Zavian is a Consultant Appraiser in the Jewelry Department at Doyle. His duties include evaluating and cataloguing jewelry and fine watches, with a particular speciality in natural pearls and jade. He travels extensively across the nation advising individuals, families and fiduciaries on collections of jewelry and watches, and facilitates the process of bringing those collections to auction. Doyle offers approximately ten jewelry sales annually, with auctions in New York and Beverly Hills.

Kevin Zavian is a third generation jeweler, following in the footsteps of his father, Berj and grandfather, Carney. He has worked the bench at the family shop since 1979. A master jeweler, he restores and repairs Ancient, Renaissance, Antique, Period and Contemporary jewelry and watches.

Mr. Zavian received a Bachelor of Science in Marketing and Business from West Virginia University. He is a member of the Appraisers Association of America and the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors.

He is a featured appraiser on the Antiques Roadshow, a WGBH production televised nationwide on the PBS network.
