

REID DUNAVANT
Senior Vice President
Director, Washington, D.C. Office
Furniture and Decorative Arts

Reid Dunavant joined Doyle New York as a General Appraiser of Furniture and Decorative Arts in 2000. From 2002-2004, he was the specialist in charge of Doyle New York's 19th and 20th Century Decorative Arts Department. In 2004, Doyle opened its first office in Washington, DC. Mr. Dunavant relocated to that office where he supervises estate appraisals and general art and antiques evaluations. He also frequently travels throughout the United States aiding in business development for the company.

Mr. Dunavant has over twenty-four years of experience in the auction industry having been with the Maryland firm of C.G. Sloan & Co. Auctioneers as the Director of Decorative Arts, and prior to that with Dawson's Auctioneers and Appraisers.

A native of Tennessee, Mr. Dunavant was graduated from the University of Tennessee with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art History. In 2006, he completed the Appraisers Association of America course on USPAP compliance (Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice). He has also completed courses given by the Appraisers Association of America at Winterthur on 18th Century American Furniture of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and Massachusettes and 18th Century Mid-Atlantic Furniture, Portraits and Works on Paper; as well as at Hillwood on French and Russian Decorative Arts.

Mr Dunavant has shared his expertise as an appraiser on the Antiques Roadshow for seven consecutive seasons from 2004-2010.