

Francisca Chaparro
Compliance Training Officer
MB Financial Bank, N.A.
Chicago, Illinois

Francisca Chaparro is the Compliance Training Officer at MB Financial Bank, N.A. She is responsible for planning, and executing the classroom and online compliance training curriculum for the Bank's employees, including material development. She also performs the Bank's risk assessment and monitoring activities for regulatory deposit compliance, including reviewing all marketing advertisements for compliance with applicable regulations for all areas of the Bank. Francisca reviews policies and procedures to help mitigate risk for new and current product initiatives and special projects, including assistance with implementing regulatory changes.

Francisca received her bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois University in Marketing. Francisca has worked in the broker/dealer and banking environment for over 17 years.

Certifications: CRCM