

INVESTMENT ADVISORS DIVISION

Susan Vogel-Vanderson

Chief Fiduciary Officer and Director, Business Controls

Career

Ms. Vogel-Vanderson is responsible for providing strategic business leadership and direction around key activities within the investment advisors business related to identifying, assessing, mitigating and managing risk as well as ensuring the existence of appropriate product and platform supervisory controls. She was promoted to the position in September 2014.

Ms. Vogel-Vanderson joined Fifth Third Private Bank (West Michigan) in June, 2005 to lead the wealth planning and tax compliance functions of the Wealth Management Group.

In 2006, she was named the Director of the Wealth Management Group where she managed a multi-disciplinary team of professionals serving high net worth private bank clients. In January, 2009, Ms. Vogel-Vanderson was named Regional Director – West Michigan for Mirador Family Wealth Advisors, Fifth Third Bank's multi-family office, and in March, 2012 she moved to a Senior Family Wealth Advisor and Fiduciary Executive role within Mirador. In April, 2013, she was named Regional Director, Personal Trust covering the trust line of business in Indiana.

Prior to joining Fifth Third Private Bank, Ms. Vogel-Vanderson was a trusts and estates attorney in Rochester, New York, working first as an associate in a large law firm and then in her solo law practice. She was recruited to head the Rochester, New York Trust Department for a global private bank. Upon returning to her hometown of Grand Rapids, Michigan, she practiced law with a large law firm.

Education

Ms. Vogel-Vanderson received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan and her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School.

Professional and Civic

Ms. Vogel-Vanderson is currently the Chair of the Board of Directors for Christian Living Services and its affiliated entities. In addition, she serves on the Overtures and Judicial Business Committee of the Regional Synod of the Great Lakes, Reformed Church in America. She is a member of the Michigan and New York Bar Associations and the Western Michigan Estate Planning Council.