

Scott Kelly

Scott is the Deputy Director of the South Dakota Division of Banking, responsible for trust oversight. The Division currently regulates 9 bank trust departments and over 90 non-depository trust companies. He has 25 years of accounting, auditing, and examining experience, the last 19 years spent with the Division. He is a 1988 graduate of Black Hills State College where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree, with an emphasis in accounting. He is also a 2003 honor graduate of Cannon Financial Institute's Fiduciary and Investment Risk Management School, achieving his designation as a Certified Fiduciary and Investment Risk Specialist.