

Michael W. Orange

Michael W. Orange is a Senior Examination Specialist - Trust in the FDIC's Washington Office – Policy and Program Development Branch. Mr. Orange is responsible for oversight and development of supervisory programs for Government Securities Dealers, Municipal Securities Dealers, Registered Transfer Agent, and Trust examination as well as policy activities. In addition, Mr. Orange conducts and participates in Safety and Soundness examinations of financial institution's trust department, and he collaborates with other financial regulatory agencies on policy matters. Michael began his career as a Bank Examiner in the Charlotte Field Office in 1992 and served as a Trust Subject Matter Expert for 15 years (in the Charlotte and Atlanta field offices) and was the Atlanta Region's Trust Specialist for four years serving as examiner-in-charge of large complex trust departments. After serving as a Supervisory Examiner in the Atlanta Field Office for 5 years, he joined the Washington Office – Policy and Program Development Branch in September 2015. Mr. Orange earned his B.S. degree in Business Administration from Morris Brown College and is a graduate of the ABA Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Georgetown University. Additionally Michael is a Certified Fiduciary and Investment Risk Specialist.