

Jennifer De Vries
Senior Managing Director – Wealth Administration, Risk and Operations
MB Financial Bank, N.A.
Chicago, Illinois

Jennifer De Vries is the Senior Managing Director for the Wealth Management division of MB Financial Bank, N.A. She is responsible for oversight of the compliance and risk management priorities within the wealth management division; trust operations; trust middle office including central services, special assets and tax units; and the administration and reporting of the wealth divisional internal operations. Additionally she has responsibilities relating to evaluating key processes to improve risk mitigation and operational effectiveness, reviewing the risk profile of new and current products and proposed service offerings; development of policies and procedures in support of new and current product initiatives and regulatory changes; conducting risk assessments, and special projects at the request of the Head of Wealth Management and the Executive Management Group.

Jennifer received her bachelor's degree from Calvin College and her master's degree in Business Administration from the Keller Graduate School of Management. She is a certified trust auditor. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Fiduciary and Investment Risk Management Association. Her time spent on the Board of Directors includes serving as Vice President and President. Jennifer has over 25 years of banking experience.