

Daniel E. Ramer

Dan Ramer is Regional Fiduciary Executive and Vice President with Fifth Third Private Bank. Dan's responsibilities include providing trust and other fiduciary services to clients and beneficiaries, developing and implementing consistent fiduciary practices within the bank's Investment Management & Trust unit, and working with trust officers to develop solutions to complex or non-routine fiduciary issues while ensuring compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and bank policies.

Dan received his B.A., magna cum laude, at the University of Miami, in Coral Gables, Florida, and his J.D. at The Ohio State University College of Law. He has been a leader in legal and estate planning groups on both the local and state levels, having served as President of the Miami County (Ohio) Bar Association and Chair of the Miami County Ethics and Grievance Committee, and he is an emeritus member of the Section Council of the Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA) Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law (EPTPL) Section and the Miami County Estate Planning Study Group. He is a frequent speaker on estate planning and trust topics, has authored articles for the Probate Law Journal of Ohio, and has been a contributing author for the OSBA's Law You Can Use series and the Association's Elder Law Handbook.

Dan chaired the 2005 Marvin R. Pliskin Seminar for the OSBA EPTPL Section and assisted in conducting seminars on the proposed Ohio Trust Code prior to its enactment in 2006. Dan also chaired the EPTPL CLE Seminar presented in connection with the 2010 OSBA Convention.

In addition, Dan has been exceptionally active in the Piqua community. In 2013, he was honored by the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce with its "Order of George," considered Piqua, Ohio's most prestigious community recognition award.

Dan resides in Piqua with his wife, Kim. They have three grown children and six grandchildren.
