

Matthew C. Eby
Managing Partner, Nth Degree Financial Solutions, L.L.C.

Going on 22 years now, when the most prestigious financial institutions need a consultant to assess and fine-tune their fiduciary business, they Take it to the Nth Degree!

Serving as a kind of S.W.O.T. Team for private as well as household name financial institutions, Matt has used his decades of experience in financial services consulting for the wealth and asset management industries to advise on improving process, control, risk management, compliance, and governance.

His passion for the industry started at none other than Northern Trust, Chicago. He then honed his consulting skills at Andersen Consulting. Combining the fiduciary elegance of Northern Trust and the creative mastery of Andersen Consulting, Matt derived the foundation of a career that manifested in what is now Nth Degree.

Along with involvement in various client projects, Matt also currently serves as Chairman of the Board of a startup estate planning company called ePIC Services, Inc., located in Incline Village, NV.

Matt proudly holds the CFIRS certification, numerous other certifications, and an MBA from DePaul University, Chicago. He is also an award-winning international speaker.

Matt lives in Sarasota, Florida with his wife, Joanne, and enjoys teaching, travel, golf, and hiking.
