

Dan Kieffer is the Director of Alternative Strategies and Equity Research for Fifth Third Bank, where he is responsible for oversight of three internally run equity strategies including dividend growth as well as two internally run alternative strategies.

With more than 10 years in the investment management industry, Dan is a member of each of Fifth Third's dedicated asset class committees where his research is a key input driving short term strategy decisions about equities, fixed income and alternative strategies. Dan writes and speaks frequently about financial market, economic and investment issues. In addition to his responsibilities at Fifth Third he also serves as a presidential appointee to the Greater Cincinnati Home Builders Association Board.

Dan earned a bachelor's degree in international business and operations management as well as a master's of science in finance from the University of Cincinnati. In addition, Dan is a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst.