

Gabrielle Bailey serves as chief fiduciary officer of CIBC Private Wealth Management. With 19 years of industry experience, she oversees the firm's trust administration and fiduciary activities and serves as co-chair of the Trust Committee. In addition, Gaby leads the growth of the firm's Delaware trust services offering by engaging with estate planning professionals around the country and working with relationship teams to provide highly customized fiduciary and custody services for trusts administered under Delaware law.

Prior to her current role as Chief Fiduciary Officer, Gaby served as the firm's legal counsel. She joined the firm in 2003 from Alston & Bird LLP, where she was an associate in the financial services group. Prior to working at Alston & Bird, Gaby was an associate with King & Spalding.

Gaby earned a Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in history from the University of Richmond and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. She is admitted to the District of Columbia Bar and the State Bar of Massachusetts. Gaby is a member of the board of Bryn Mawr Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation, as well as the University of Richmond's Alumni Recruitment Committee.

In 2016, Gaby was named one of the 50 most influential women in private wealth by Private Asset Management magazine.