

Keith Bujalski, JPMorgan Chase

Keith Bujalski is a Managing Director in the Audit Department for JPMorgan Chase in New York. He is a Certified Public Accountant and also holds both his Certified Trust Auditor and Certified Financial Services Auditor designations. Keith has global audit responsibility for JPMorgan's Investor Services business within the Corporate and Investment Bank. Prior to his current role, Keith was responsible for audit coverage of the Global Private Bank and Private Client Services within the Firm's Asset and Wealth Management business. He has also served as Audit's Fiduciary Subject Matter Expert and their representative on the Firm's Fiduciary Risk Governance Committee.

Keith has also served as the President of the Fiduciary and Investment Risk Management Association, Inc. <sup>TM</sup> ("FIRMA<sup>TM</sup>") from 2008-2011 providing continuing education, best practices, and networking opportunities for audit, compliance, and risk management professionals within the financial services industry. Keith was first appointed to FIRMA's Board of Directors in 2006. He has also been Vice President of FIRMA and has served as Chair of the Association's Finance Committee and the Operational Risk Committee. FIRMA is.

Prior to joining JP Morgan Chase, Keith has held Audit Manager positions at Deutsche Bank, Bankers Trust Company, and Brown Brothers Harriman & Co.

Keith is a graduate of Old Dominion University in Virginia where he obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting. Keith lives in New Jersey with his wife and two children.