

Harold Adams Crawford (CAMS)
Global Director of Anti-Money Laundering & Sanctions
Brown Brothers Harriman & Co.

Harold “Hal” Crawford is the Global Director of Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions for Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. (BBH), the oldest and largest partnership bank in the United States of America. Mr. Crawford is responsible for oversight and direction of the firm’s international AML, Sanctions, and Banking Compliance programs, including two National Trust banks. Hal participates in a variety of senior management activities designed to enhance firm-wide regulatory risk management control practices.

Mr. Crawford has more than twenty-two years of experience in global financial services, advisory and national bank supervision. His banking experience includes serving as the Deputy Regional Money Laundering Prevention Officer and Head of Financial Intelligence at UBS Investment Bank in New York, the National Director for Enhanced Due Diligence at the U.S. Trust Company of New York. Hal spent several years working for Arthur Andersen’s Regulatory Risk Services Practice, and was a National Bank Examiner with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). He is a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist, a member of the NY ACAMS Chapter Board, a volunteer Commissioner with the Boy Scouts of America and holds a B.S. Degree in Political Science.