

Patricia (Tish) Dalton

Tish is the Technical Expert in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's Asset Management Policy Group, part of the Market Risk Division within the Chief National Bank Examiner's office. The Asset Management group supports the OCC's development, implementation, and interpretation of policies, provides examiner training and banker outreach, and contributes direct support to the OCC's examination teams.

Prior to joining the OCC in 2005, Tish spent more than 30 years in the banking industry where she managed bank and asset management operations, fiduciary risk management, compliance, tax, and related support functions. She is a graduate of the University of Virginia and holds the designations of CSOP and CFIRS.