

David Jonke

Dave Jonke is Vice President and Director of Compliance for Financial Products at Fifth Third Bancorp. Dave joined Fifth Third in 2010 to lead the fiduciary compliance programs for personal trust, institutional trust, and investment management. Beginning in 2013, Dave added to his role the compliance responsibilities for securities brokerage, insurance agency, registered investment advisors, and capital markets.

For three years prior to joining Fifth Third, Dave was part of the Compliance Department at Bank of America U.S. Trust Private Wealth Management and its predecessor, LaSalle Bank. Before Bank of America, Dave was with JPMorgan Chase and its earlier firms (Bank One and First Chicago) for 22 years in fiduciary compliance, securities compliance, and internal audit roles. Dave began his career in public accounting.

In 2013, Dave was elected to the Board of Directors of the Fiduciary & Investment Risk Management Association (FIRMA), is the chairman of its Finance Committee, and serves on its Education Committee. Dave earned bachelor's degrees in Accounting and Computer Science from Northern Illinois University; is a certified public accountant and a certified trust auditor; and holds FINRA securities licenses 7, 9, 10, 24, and 66. Dave is a member of the Fiduciary Risk Management and Compliance Roundtable, the SIFMA Compliance and Legal Society, and the American Institute of CPAs.
