Sally Larson Sargent is a Senior Managing Director and Head of Personal Trust and Guardianship Services at MB Financial Bank. Ms. Sargent joined MB in 2008 and has over thirty-seven years of experience in trust and estate matters.

Ms. Sargent's responsibilities include management of a team of trust and estate professionals and strategic planning, development and delivery of personal trust, guardianship and post-death estate administration services as part of the Wealth Management group at MB.

Ms. Sargent earned a bachelor's degree and graduated summa cum laude from Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa. She received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Illinois College of Law in Champaign, Illinois. Prior to joining MB, Ms. Sargent was Senior Vice President and National Group Executive for Personal Trust with Harris Private Bank, headquartered in Chicago. Earlier in her career, Ms. Sargent practiced law as a trusts and estates attorney in Chicago, first as an associate at Seyfarth, Shaw, Fairweather & Geraldson (now Seyfarth Shaw LLP) and later as a partner at Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal (now Dentons).

Ms. Sargent currently is a member of the Chicago Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the Chicago Estate Planning Council, the Gift Planning Advisory Committee of the Art Institute of Chicago, the Professional Advisor Council of the Children's Memorial Foundation and the Planned Giving Task Force at DePaul University.
