

David Villwock is the Head of US Private Bank and Wealth Management Compliance. In this role he is responsible for compliance support of the US client businesses including the Private Bank, JP Morgan Advisors and Chase Wealth Management.

In addition, Mr. Villwock is the Head of JP Morgan Firmwide Fiduciary Compliance where he has responsibility for JP Morgan's compliance infrastructure for obligations under Part 9 and ERISA for all lines of business. He also serves as the firm's Senior Compliance Officer under the Qualified Professional Asset Manager (QPAM) exemption.

He joined JP Morgan in 1999 managing large scale regulatory projects focused on fiduciary account system conversions, investment performance system conversions and related operations consolidations. He joined the Compliance team in 2006. Before coming to JP Morgan, Mr. Villwock operated a law practice focused on trust and estate and employment law. He has a BA from Otterbein College, a JD from the DePaul University College of Law and an MBA from The Ohio State University.

He is a member of the Ohio Bar and has earned the Certified Fiduciary & Investment Risk Specialist (CFIRS) designation from Cannon Financial Institute.